News Homes Dedicated

KIRTLAND AFB, N.M. -- Kirtland's first new homes in decades opened their doors Nov. 26 in a pre-Thanksgiving ribbon cutting ceremony.

The $22 million project, known simply as Replace Military Family Housing-Pershing Park, is part of the base's continuing quality-of-life efforts aimed at making Kirtland the best place in which to live and work in the Air Force.

The first 17 homes dedicated were earmarked for junior enlisted members and their families, while other houses are now nearing completion.

In the photo, Senior Airman John Avila III, his wife Regina and their children Shelby and Ashley, move into their new home.
